1. Details Of Posting Bad Behaviour of Females to CAF

Today woman are able to get away with the most despicable of behaviour with complete impunity in the western world. Therefore there is a need to have a global registry where details of bad behaviour by women can be placed so that it is searchable to the public so that the public can sanction such women. It is also important for men to protect themselves from such women.

This is proposed to be implemented by Crimes Against Fathers and our Global Portal infrastructure.

2. Service Delivery Procedure

The Service Delivery Procedure for the Posting of Bad Behaviour by Females to CAF will be as follows:

1. The Client is required to make oath that all materials provided to CAF is true and correct and the product of first hand knowledge. Client is required to make oath that all information is provided under oath and penalty of perjury. The client will be presumed to have made this oath when he applies his signature to the signature page on the form below.

2. The Client is to pay the amount of EUR10 or EUR50 to the paypal account as follows:
peter.nolan.paypal@peternolan.com.

Client must mention the email address provided above in the payment details for the payment so that the link between the payment and the forms sent to CAF can be easily made.

3. The Client then completes the associated form to provide identification in the event a counter claim is brought to CAF by the female in question.

The form is scanned and emailed to DenounceCriminalWomen@crimesagainstfathers.com or faxed to +61-280790691.

4. The Client then completes the exact text he wants loaded up the CAF site. Any images that are to be loaded are to be provided as attachments to the email that will be sent to CAF.

The email to send the exact text to be posted, plus images is as follows:
DenounceCriminalWomen@crimesagainstfathers.com

Note: The Client may send the form and the email/images denouncing the female in one email.

5. The Service Provider will call the telephone number provided to ensure that the Service Provider speaks to the man who claims to have sent the form to reduce the possibility of women making false statements masquerading as men. Where possible a skype conference call will be performed so that the photo of the man on the identification documents can be matched to the mans face making the claim.
6. The Service Provider will allocated a case number and post the details to the relevant CAF portal.
7. The Service Provider will email the Client to confirm the posting was made.
8. The Client will check the entry and confirm that he is satisfied with the service.

3. Deliverables
