Notice of Court Fees

The Mens Business Association will levy fees for the processing of this case should the case go ahead.

On acceptance of the case a deposit in the equivalent of 20 ounces of silver is required to engage the court such that activities can be performed.

A full accounting of all actions taken and costs will be provided.

This 20 ounces of silver, or equivalent, will be used in serving documents and court staff time in the preparation of the court case.

On acceptance of the case the court will appoint a Peace Officer to personally serve the documents to the accused. This will be done even if you claim you have previously served documents on the accused.

The MBA – LS Court Secretary will review your documents and give you an estimate of the court costs that will be incurred for the processing of your case. The estimate of the costs plus 20 percent will need to be deposited with the court for the case to proceed.

If the accused is found innocent then you, the accuser, will be refunded all monies minus the actual costs of performing the court case. You will be held accountable for the costs of the case in the case of an innocent verdict.

In the case of a guilty verdict the court will ensure that the guilty party pay the costs of the proceedings and will refund your costs as soon as this money is recovered from the guilty party.

Should the guilty party have no property and refuse to make payment and refuse to make remedy then the guilty party will be outlawed.
